DECEMBER 28 PROGRAM

In The Nut- cracker Mood

This holiday production brings you many of your favorite holiday songs such as Spike Jones’ “All I want for Christmas is my Two Front Teeth”, “Rudolph the Red-Nose Reindeer” and “Rockin’ Around the Christmas Tree” performed by beautifully crafted marionettes. The trick marionettes, always an integral part of Mountain Marionettes’ productions, perform to a very special rendition of The Nutcracker by the incomparable Glenn Miller Orchestra.

Mountain Marionettes is a full time, professional puppet company based in Cedar Mountain, NC, specializing in the Art of the Marionette. Performed by master puppeteer Susan VandeWeghe, Mountain Marionettes’ productions feature short strung marionettes with the puppeteer in full view of the audience in a fast-paced variety format.

FROM THE PRESIDENT — Frank Kolb

I hope many of you will be able to attend our next meeting. Please bring children, grandchildren and any other members of your family who can come. Kelle Corvin has put together an outstanding program for this meeting and I feel that it will be enjoyable not only for children but also for the young in heart.

I appreciate the great job Bob Hughes did on our last program. I particularly appreciate the work that he and many others have done and continue to do to make Greenville both a quality place to live and also a place of beauty. The people of Greenville have much reason to be thankful.

On a somber note, our outstanding executive assistant, Vickie Pittman, lost her mother this past week. The funeral was on Friday and I am sure we all express our sympathy to Vickie and her family.

I hope you receive this prior to Christmas as I want to wish each of you a holy Christmas and a happy holiday season. May there truly come a time of peace on earth and good will toward all!
