President's Message

Thoughts from President Scott Stephens

A Conversation With a Friend

I had a great conversation with an old friend yesterday. We talked about business, family, religion and politics. Out of the blue he stated, "You know, I've thought about all the stories you've told me about what your Rotary Club is doing in the community and I think I want to join Rotary."

I hate to say it, but I was a little surprised. Not the fact that he would want to become a Rotarian, but because I've never really made a "hard sell" of Rotary to him. On occasion we've talked about Rotary club projects in the community and some of the speakers we've had. He's come to a couple of our meetings, but I've never gotten the feeling that he could fit Rotary into his schedule.

So, I asked him why he decided to join now. "Simple," he said, "When I've come to a meeting I've always been greeted warmly, and I think it's great that Rotary invests in other people's lives....like the kids who receive the scholarships for college. I want to be around leaders who make a difference in people's lives and the folks at the Rotary Club do that."

It's amazing to me how every day conversation and a simple invitation can inspire another person to get involved in a great cause.

Rotary is a great cause. This past year we have invested a number of volunteer hours back into the community! For instance:

- Teacher Appreciation Activities – 61 volunteer hours
- Roper Mountain Holiday Lights – 2022 volunteer hours
- International Projects – 118 volunteer hours
- Veteran Mentor Project – 125 volunteer hours
- Law Enforcement Appreciation – 18 volunteer hours
- Read to Me – 588 volunteer hours
- Early Act First Knight – 66 volunteer hours
- Career Day – 105 volunteer hours.

After looking at this list, it's easy to see that we have many Rotarians who are investing their talents and time for the people of our community. Who wouldn't want to be associated with this kind of leader?

On May 22nd you will have a great opportunity to invite a friend to learn more about Rotary. We will be having a 'Spring Social' at the Westin Poinsett rather than our normal luncheon. Plan to come and have cocktails and hors d'oeuvres, then if you'd like to, you can break away with friends to a great restaurant for dinner. There's no charge for potential members and spouses or significant others are only $10, but space is limited so make sure to register on DACdb today!

Rotary Club of Greenville is a great organization in which to be a member. I'm glad I spoke often about Rotary to my friend; he'll make a great Rotarian!

Service Above Self Scholarship

A Letter from Ellen Featherstone

A LETTER TO THE ROTARY CLUB OF GREENVILLE FROM ELLEN FEATHERSTONE, 2014 ROTARY “SERVICE ABOVE SELF” SCHOLAR

Dear Rotarians,

On Tuesday, April 10th, I will have the privilege of speaking one last time about my experience as a Rotary “Service Above Self” scholarship recipient. It has been such an honor to represent the Rotary Club of Greenville, and I look forward to sharing my final chapter at Clemson University with all of you. This scholarship has not only given me educational support but has allowed me to learn extensively about servant leadership. I have had the best mentors throughout my time at college, and I strive to serve as fully as all the Rotarians I’ve had the pleasure to meet.

During this meeting, I will also be sharing my plans after graduation. I have accepted a position as a Health Extension Volunteer with Peace Corps Malawi. After departing June 2nd, I will be serving for 27 months abroad. During this time I will be working under the President’s Malaria Initiative and the President’s Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief. I am thrilled to be able to serve in the global health sector, and I cannot wait to use my degree to help the community I will be living in.

While in Malawi, I will also have the opportunity to pursue secondary project endeavors in areas that I feel are of high need in my local community. These projects could range from a community garden, to a fisheries project, to a Girl Guides troop, to a grassroots soccer team, or even to hosting a women’s empowerment conference. These projects will likely have to be funded through grant applications and fundraising efforts. If any members of the Rotary of Greenville feel led to donate to my future projects, I will be accepting cash and check donations prior to my departure.

Thank you again for all of your support and for encouraging me to serve to my greatest capacity.

I look forward to seeing you soon,

Ellen Featherstone
2014 Rotary “Service Above Self” Scholarship Recipient

Service Above Self Scholarship

Please Join Us.

Join us in Celebrating Ellen Featherstone's Graduation!

Ellen Featherstone, our first Rotary "Service above Self" Scholarship recipient, will graduate from Clemson University on May 11th at 2:30 p.m. As Ellen will be going to Malawi for 27 months after graduation (see above letter), we want to provide her with funds for a special project or projects which she chooses for the Malawi village in which she will be working. Three-quarters of Malawians live below the international poverty line, surviving on less than $1.25 per day. The funds will be presented to Ellen as a graduation gift to support her continued commitment to "Service above Self."

If you would like to contribute funds for a project, please be prepared to bring cash or a check to the Rotary Club of Greenville meeting on April 10th. (Tax deductions are not available.) Checks should be made payable to Ellen Featherstone with the wording "For Malawi project(s)" on the memo line. There will be a manila envelope on each table at the Rotary meeting in which to place your donation.

If you want to send a note to Ellen as she graduates and begins this "Service above Self" journey to Malawi, please address it to Ellen Featherstone, 9 Northbrook Way, Greenville, SC 29615.

Rotarians, this is your $50 donation to the Rotary Scholarship Fund at work! You can take great pride in the contribution that you have made to Ellen Featherstone's life and continued service to humanity! Join in this celebration of Ellen's graduation from Clemson University!

Early Act First Knight (EAFK) Update

Our Club partners with 2 schools in the area, Alexander Elementary School and Lead Academy, in the Early Act First Knight program.

In a recent report on the partnership, Jane Dyer explained, "Our first knighting ceremony was a few weeks ago and you can't imagine how excited the students were when the curtains were pulled back and they saw a real knight!!! "

Make plans to attend one of the knighting ceremonies; however, if you do plan to attend, contact Jane as schedules may change due to conflicts that arise within the schools.

Future Knighting ceremonies:

Alexander Elementary School
May 7, 1:15 PM

Lead Academy
May 11, 1:00 PM

The program still needs volunteers, so if you would like to be involved in this very rewarding endeavor, Jane will be happy to provide additional information.
