A Message from the President

The Paul Harris Fellow Match

The Paul Harris Fellows program was established in 1957 to show appreciation for and encourage substantial contributions to what was then the Foundation's only program, Rotary Foundation Fellowships for Advanced Study, the precursor to Ambassadorial Scholarships. Early Paul Harris Fellows received a certificate of recognition. In 1969, the Foundation unveiled the first Paul Harris Fellow medallion created by Japanese metal artist Fiju Tsuda. Also in 1979, the Rotary International President-Elect James Bomar challenged each Rotary Club to make one non-Rotarian a Paul Harris Fellow.

The Rotary Club of Pikesville, Maryland, in 1980, responded by making a donation in the name of Mother Teresa. Many other notable figures have been named as Paul Harris Fellows, including U.S. President Jimmy Carter, Russian President Boris Yeltsin, U.S. astronaut James Lovell, UN Secretary-General Javier Perez de Cuellar, and Jonas Salk.

Becoming a Paul Harris Fellow is important and an honor because it means that $1,000 has been given to The Rotary Foundation to do even more good in the world. For each additional $1,000 a sapphire or ruby is added to a Rotarian's Paul Harris Fellows pin. I would love to see every member of the Rotary Club of Greenville wearing a Paul Harris Fellow pin. We have the opportunity to show the world how committed this club is to "service above self".

Here's the deal. Once again this year, I along with our Foundation Co-Chairs, Delisa English and Russ Miller, am pleased to announce that the Club will match your contributions to the Foundation to help you move to the next level of Paul Harris Fellow giving. In other words, if you give $500 this year the Club will match your donation to bring you to $1,000 and make you a Paul Harris Fellow. If you have already given $600 to the Foundation and give another $200 this year, the Club will match it to bring your giving to $1,000.

Within the next few weeks, members will be receiving a letter outlining the program and showing your current giving and the amount you need to reach the next level. I sincerely hope you will consider increasing your giving, or even gift a Paul Harris Fellowship to someone else. Your generous contributions to the The Rotary Foundation are essential to securing and growing Rotary programs throughout the world. Wear the pin with pride.

- THIRD. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.
