Palmetto Promise Institute

Featuring Jim DeMint and Ellen Weaver

Because we believe in the limitless promise of South Carolina and her people, as we fulfill our promise to promote a policy vision that returns dollars and decisions to individuals and communities...and inspires people to work together for our shared future. That's a promise we intend to keep.

Our vision begins with four foundational drivers of our state's future success: education, energy, healthcare and taxes. Each area represents untapped potential to afford every South Carolinian the opportunity to flourish. With your help, bold ideas and strategic, long-term thinking will carry the day. We hope you'll join us in this journey to unlock our Palmetto State's incredible promise!

Jim DeMint - Honorary Founding Chairman, Palmetto Promise Institute

A long-time proponent of freedom solutions in the halls of Congress, Jim DeMint developed his understanding of conservative principles in action as a husband, father and small business owner in Greenville, South Carolina. He continues to be a trusted advocate for the kind of bold, best-practice policy solutions that expand opportunity and prosperity for all Americans

Ellen Weaver - President and CEO of Palmetto Promise Institute

A seasoned veteran of policy and politics and a native of Greenville, Ellen worked for 12 years in a wide variety of roles in the operation of U.S. Senator Jim DeMint, both in Washington, DC and South Carolina. Her final assignment as State Director included responsibility for management of staff, communications, outreach and political strategy in the state. Her diverse portfolio has also included fundraising, speech-writing, state and national coalition-building as well as authorship of opinion editorials published both nationally and across the opinion pages of South Carolina. She serves as a Senate appointee on the SC Education Oversight Committee and is a member of the Columbia Rotary Club. In her spare time, Ellen is an avid reader and musician who loves to travel.

President's Message

Wisdom from President Scott Stephens

Holiday Memories

I have wonderful memories of Greenville during the holiday season. As a Greenville native, I remember the Christmas tree lights on the top of the Daniel Building. You could see them all the way from Easley! That tree was always the first indication that the annual Main Street Christmas shopping season had begun. Each year, my family would shop at Belk's, Penny's, and Ivey's, and then stop for lunch at Tanner's Big Orange for a hotdog and big orange drink. The Salvation Army Bell would be ringing and neighbors would all be downtown enjoying the season. We'd go caroling in the neighborhood with other kids and to the Memorial Auditorium to see the Singing Christmas Tree.

Everyone has Christmas memories and traditions. For over 26 years, our Rotary Club, along with the Roper Mountain Science Center, has helped Upstate families develop their own traditions by sponsoring the holiday lights at Roper Mountain. Last week while volunteering as a gate captain at Holiday Lights, I had the privilege of meeting one of these families. The McDonald family has visited Holiday Lights at least two to three times every year for the past twenty years. This year after they purchased their season pass, they decided that the whole family (mom, dad, and the four children ages 5 to 19) would all volunteer "one last time" on the mountain. While at Holiday Lights, they experienced both sadness and excitement. They were sad that the tradition is over, but excited that they had the opportunity to end their tradition by volunteering on the mountain and making another Holiday Lights memory for their family.

You have the opportunity to end the tradition well and make one last memory too! Volunteer one last time to ensure that this last Holiday Lights makes a significant impact for Rotary Charities in Greenville. It'll be four hours of service that you'll never forget.
